The year has flown by and the holidays

to be good and not interrupt our meetings!

Our annual Christmas banquet will be December 1st. We'll be setting up earlier that same day. If you can help, please contact Nancy.

The YNs will be recognized for their achievements throughout the year at the banquet.
Please join us as we celebrate their hard work and dedication. The YN auction is in January. Seeing the list of items that will be up for sale, makes me
wish I was a child again!

I want to thank Jim Moores and Judy Carman for the show pictures they sent me. I hope you enjoy seeing them too.

I hope everyone had a good Thanksgiving and were able to spend time with friends and family. Merry Christmas to you and your family

In 1825, you couldn't visit the Philadelphia Mint when it was raining. The rule adopted that year said, "Visitors may be admitted by permission of an officer to see the various operations of the Mint on all working days except Saturday and rainy days."

Monuments Men Bronze Medal

The name "Monuments Men" was given to the men and women who served in the Monuments, Fine Arts, and Archives section under the Allied Armies in World War II. The Monuments Men saved and recovered some 5,000,000 of the world's most famous pieces of art by such renowned artists as Michelangelo, Johannes Vermeer, Jan van Eyck, Vincent van Gogh, Rembrandt, and Leonardo da Vinci.

The obverse features a portrayal of soldiers in action, lifting and removing objects from a cave or mine location where stolen works were discovered. The artwork depicted represents major works of historic significance the group recovered. The design includes the inscription "MONUMENTS MEN." The obverse was designed by United States Mint Artistic Infusion Program (AIP) artist Joel Iskowitz and sculpted by United States Mint Sculptor-Engraver Phebe Hemphill.

The reverse features some of the works of art that were at risk from damage, destruction, or theft by Nazi forces, surrounding the inscription "IT IS OUR PRIVILEGE TO PASS ON TO THE COMING CENTURIES TREASURES OF PAST AGES" and "GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER." The reverse was designed by AIP artist Donna Weaver and sculpted by United States Mint Sculptor-Engraver Joseph Menna.
