I'm getting ready to head to Summer Seminar in a few days. OCC was asked to do a presentation on our YN program. Andrew, Joseph and Tim Cummings and I will give our thoughts on it to the assembled masses. Hopefully we can get other clubs to support YN programs. I also hope that clubs with YN programs will share what they do.

Thanks to Jim Guy for supplying a great deal of good information on the program to help me look smarter. The Memphis Paper Money show was great!!!! Got some good notes on the floor and won a few auction lots. I need to start saving for our fall show!!!!

In addition to the Memphis show I attended the Philippine Collectors Forum. It is an ANA chartered Club that meets once a year. This year due to the auctioning of one of the largest Philippine collections ever assembled it was decided to add a second meeting the day before the auction in Memphis. I did a presentation on my Series of 1941 1 Peso Treasury Certificate research project at the PCF meeting.

I would encourage you to attend similar gatherings on your collecting interests when possible and meet some of the great people who enjoy this hobby of ours.

A big "Thank You" to Harry Waterson for his presentation at our June meeting. Many people commented on the quality of the presentation. We need more of these, Who's Next???????

Remember, the picnic has been moved to September!!!!!!

See you all on the 3rd

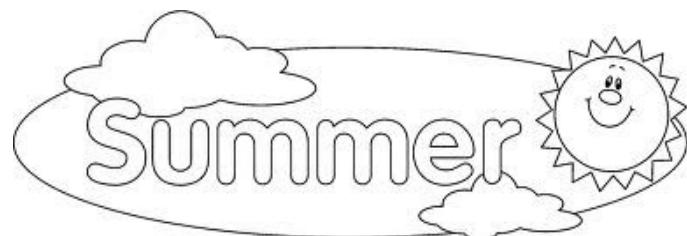

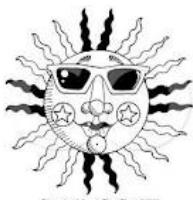

Bob

Meeting Presentation

The educational presentation for our June meeting was by OCC's very own Harry Waterson. Harry had just received the first edition of his first book, "The Medal-of-the-Month Club", created by Felicity Buranelli and compiled by Harry Waterson. Harry covered all aspects of the book from initial idea to taking orders for signed copies. He told of the many interactions necessary to gather his data and also the difficulty of getting approval to use some material. The editing and re-write process was of interest to those of us who may someday want to give writing and publishing a try. There were many questions for Harry after the presentation.

Harry also brought many of the medals to the meeting and they were on display after the meeting. It is obvious to this writer that Harry loves to research "things". His thoroughness and dedication should be an example to both YN and seasoned collectors that there is always something to be learned and shared.

Great presentation, Harry and "Congratulations" on your first book. Thanks for sharing!!!!

Acadia National Park Quarter

Reverse: In this image, the Bass Harbor Head Lighthouse stands atop a seaside cliff.

Obverse: George Washington's profile is surrounded by the inscriptions "United States of America," "Liberty," "In God We Trust," a mint mark, and "Quarter Dollar"

The coin I picked for June honors Acadia National Park. The park is in the Gulf of Maine, which stretches from Nova Scotia, Canada, to Cape Cod, Massachusetts. The gulf's currents mix cold northern waters with nutritious river waters to create a rich marine environment for many kinds of plants and animals. Fishing has been a major industry in Maine for more than 200 years.

A small piece of Acadia National Park is located on the Maine mainland, but more than 90 percent of the park is on islands along the coast.

Little Cranberry Island is one example. Although the island is not part of the park, it is home to a park museum. The people who live on Little Cranberry are hardy and self-sufficient. The kids go to school on the island through 8th grade, but they travel to Mount Desert Island or the mainland for high school.

On the other hand, all of Baker Island is part of Acadia National Park but is no longer inhabited. The Gilley family settled Baker Island in 1806, starting a community that thrived for awhile, but the last resident moved off the island in 1929.

The lighthouse keeper left in 1966. Only three of the town's buildings still stand.

The largest of Acadia's islands is Mount Desert Island. Most of the park is located on this island. The only lighthouse on the island is the one pictured on this quarter, the Bass Harbor Head Lighthouse. You can visit the grounds of the lighthouse, but you can't go inside because the commander of the local Coast Guard unit lives there.

Even in these days of GPS, sonar, and detailed maps, lighthouses are important to seaside communities. Did you know that each lighthouse has its own light color and flashing pattern so sailors can tell them apart? The pattern for Bass Harbor Head's red light is three flashes followed by one second of dark, forming a four-second pattern.

There's so much more I could tell you about Acadia... but I'm out of time. Why don't you look up the park on your own? And don't forget the Acadia National Park Quarter page!
