April 2018

Charles Barber

Charles Barber was the sixth Chief Engraver of the US Mint from 1879 to 1917. Barber was born in London in 1840. He died in 1917 while still in office.

Charles' father, William was the fifth Chief Engraver. Charles began an apprenticeship at the age of 19 under his father.

When William Barber passed away in 1879, a new Chief Engraver was needed. Edward Leech, Mint Director, ordered Charles Barber, William Key and Gordon Morgan to submit designs. It was decided that Barber's design was the best. And in 1879, President Hayes appointed Charles as his father's successor.

During his time as Chief Engraver, Charles designed the following: the Barber dime, Barber quarter, Barber half dollar and the Liberty Head nickel. He, also, designed coins for Hawaii, Venezuela and Cuba. His designs included the Flowing Hair Stella, the Isabella quarter, the Lafayette dollar and the obverse of the Columbian Exposition half dollar. His collection included some 200 patterns from his 48 years at the mint!

George T. Morgan succeeded Barber in 1917 following his death.

Editor's Corner

I want to thank my mom for her help on this edition. I've been in Columbia for the last week for a school trip. Unfortunately, I wasn't able to do this month's newsletter because of that.

Last month, we studied the Liberty Head Nickel. So, I thought 'Why not learn more about Charles Barber?'

Hope to see you at the next meeting.
