MAY 2019

Stephanie's Pretty Penny by Stephanie S.

2009 Bicentennial Lincoln Cent

In 2009 the U.S. Mint issued a new Bicentennial Reverse Design. The designs represent the four major parts of Abraham Lincoln's life. The Log Cabin represents his birth and early childhood. A design of Lincoln sitting on a log and reading a book represents his school - age years. The design of Lincoln standing behind Capital represents his career as a senator. Finally, the White House reverse represents Lincoln being elected as the 16th president. Next week I will write about the final reverse design of the Lincoln cent to be minted so far.

Interesting fact :The White House on the 2009 Lincoln cent is still under construction.

School is out. Summer's here. I hope you have something fun planned for this year. Check out this picture. Were there three or four brothers in the YN meeting? If you can solve that mystery, I'll see you at the meeting.
