JULY 2019

Answer to June's "What Am I?"

If you guessed a Missouri Highway Patrol challenge coin, then you were correct.

This coin is one of the newest editions to my collection. It was brought back by my mother after a business trip to Jefferson City. If you're like me, you're probably wondering what it symbolizes or means. Many sources conflict about what it truly means. But most sources indicate they are given to others as a way to challenge them to drive sober or given between officers to challenge them to reach a certain rank by a certain date.

Whatever the case, I find it a nice addition to my collection and look forward to finding more.

If you want to share part of your collection this way, let either Jim G, myself or my mom (Dyan) know.

Editor's Say

This year's trip to St. Charles, reaffirmed the joy I get from coin collecting and being part of the hobby.

And also showed me that this hobby is one I hope to continue through my college years and the rest of my life.

I wish to thank everyone who made this trip possible and for reminding me how much I love this hobby. I look forward to what, my adult years in the club will bring.
